Dail China, A New Chapter in History

A Beautiful Finish, and a New Beginning

Having put behind us the extraordinarily long and bountiful Chuseok holidays, we have the last season of the year just around the corner. This fall is already prosperous in that it has delivered the news of our beautiful finish and new start.

On Aug. 29, Dail Community in China, the first overseas branch of Dail Community, kept its promise with the Chinese government by transferring Dail Children's House, which has been lovingly operated for the last 20 years, to Hunchun City Welfare Center. We attended the momentous transfer ceremony with all the former directors. It was a great opportunity for all former workers who have been dedicated to children without pay or reward, to meet and share their gratitude. We give our thanks to everyone who have supported and loved Dail Children's House in China. We hope that you will continue to give your support and care to the Dail Community in China, which is off to a new start at the hands of its graduates among others.

We have good news not only from China, but also from the Philippines. On Sep. 24, there were opening ceremonies for the Dail Community Kamansi Community Center, Cebu Babfor, and Kamansi Dail Church that had been in preparation for a long time. Do you remember 'the Miracle of One Filipino Peso'? We sent 'the Miracle of One Filipino Peso' ten million Korean Won made up of one hundred thousand 100-Won coins, which is enough budget for keeping a certain standard of appearance for Cheongnyangni Babfor. This seed money created more miracles, swollen donations from many noble hearts. The ceremony was filled with joy and gratitude. Looking ahead, Kamansi Community Center will provide diverse education such as basic lessons and hygiene education for the local community and take the lead in improving the residential environment.

Just as the start in China has led to the eighteenth branch in Cebu and Kamansi in the Philippines and the 100-won coins were collected to bring the creation of another Babfor branch to its full fruition, we believe that our prayers and small dedications will create more miracles of 'five loaves of bread and two fish'. Please show your solidarity in delighting in, supporting, and giving passionate prayers for Dail now embarking on its new missions. Thank you!

Your brother, Choi Il-do

20-Year Footprint of Dail Community in China

A Beautiful Finish and a New Beginning for Dail Community China

The first overseas branch of Dail Community was created in 1997 in Mihong Township, Hunchun, China. Its first mission was to leave life saving kits by the Duman(Tumen) River for homeless North Korean children who crossed the river to escape starvation risking their own lives. Dail Children's House in Hunchun, which started in 1998 with twelve Korean-Chinese orphans, has raised a total of 70 children through its operation for the past 20 years. And at last in August, Dail Children's House in China beautifully wrapped up its erstwhile service.

On Aug. 29, 2017, Dail Community was officially transferred to the Chinese government. The Transfer Ceremony was attended by an official of Civil Affairs Bureau of Hunchun and the representative of Dail Community, who used the significant occasion to commend one another for their hard work for 20 years. Thus, the precious children of Dail Children's House now continue their growth at the newly built Children's Welfare Center of Hunchun.

Those seventy children, who came to Dail Community China with various histories and scars, have grown healthy over the past 20 years thanks to love and dedication from a lot of people. Now that the name and the building of the children's house are gone, the warm-hearted commitment to serve the disadvantaged and to share even small things with others will remain in our children's heart. Thus, here's a fresh start for Dail Community China made up of its graduates who are 18 years or older. Please give your support to this new beginning for Dail Community China.

Hoping that Dail continues to put into action true sharing and love until, just like Dail Community China, other overseas branches stand on their own feet, we extend our deeply felt thanks to everyone who has sponsored Dail Children's House. Thank you.

“To My Loving Sons and Daughters of Hunchun”

A Letter from Director Hee Jun Lee of Dail Community China

Even though we transferred Dail Children's House to the Children's Welfare Center of Hunchun as promised, I keep seeing you and hearing your voices whether my eyes are open or closed.

Every morning at 5:50 a.m., I feel like I should wake you up and send you children to school after making sure that you have put your school uniforms properly on and got your school materials and lunch. I still can't feel that you are all gone.

I was so thankful and happy to be living as your mother. And I thank you for understanding and accepting my deficiencies and weaknesses as a mother.

All the years we shared while eating, sleeping, crying, and laughing together will remain inscribed in our hearts. A little while later, we will be reminiscing those old days with laughter.

Sometimes, when you were having a hard time, and whenever I felt like I could do nothing for your troubled heart, I had to seek for the Heavenly Father's face, and He was at work, always.

The Heavenly Father is at work every day touching and soothing your broken heart. I saw Him through you, children.

I whole-heartedly wish that God bless all of you!

Raised in the special environment of the border area between Korea and China and having groomed your dreams while making excursions to the Tumen River where China, Korea, and Russia share borders with each other, you guys are bound to grow into global talents.

And it is demonstrated by those of you, who are building our life and career in the US, Korea, Cambodia, and the vast land of China! I'm so thankful to you and I'm so proud of you.

Despite our deficiencies, we just loved each other and worked hard, staying together all the time.

Yes. Having put away regrets, wounds, and pain, only love has left. With this love, let's live the rest of our lives by loving each other more and more anytime and anywhere.

Looking back, all the moments were just so gratifying. But, if I try to figure out when I felt the most overwhelming kind of gratitude, it was when you grew up so pretty, got married, had children, got a family, and visited Dail Children's House with your family. A lot of people tend to feel ashamed of and even want to hide the fact that they were raised at an orphanage. And the light steps you take home-ward for holidays with your family make me feel deep joy, consolation, gratitude, and hope.

Down the road, watching your happiness will be our huge pleasure. And in those moments, we will be with you still, always. We support you all the time, and we are always there for you guys!

Love you, my boys and girls!

多一, 就如你的骄傲 你, 是多一的快乐!

Just as Dail makes your pride, you are the joy of Dail!

- Bom, Hunchun Mama -

P.S. Dail Community China is not over

Dail Children's House in Hunchun has been transferred to the Civil Affairs Bureau, whereas the real thing begins for the Dail Community China. We humbly give our deepest thanks to you who sponsored and loved Dail China for the past twenty years. We thank you and thank you again! Those children whom you have raised with love are now starting Dail Community China on their own. The Children's Welfare Center of Hunchun has a regulation that requires departure on graduation from high school, which imposes heavy psychological and financial burden on those youths who just graduated from high school. Those earlier graduates will financially help their younger ones who go to college and also take care of those in the Children's Welfare Center. And the graduates will voluntarily form the Dail Community China Loving Heart Association and carry on with the spirit of serving and sharing through taking care of neighbors in need in their local community. We sincerely ask you to continue to sponsor and support Dail China. I also will stay in Hunchun and keep helping these children! I love you. We owe everything to you!

Letters from Children in China

"Hello! We are Lim Ye-hwa and Han Won-cheol, wife and husband, with Han Tae-min, our son. We are now running a child care in Hunchun. Thanks to your love, we are living a good life with this beautiful family. We love you and wish you good health."

"Hello! We are Lee Il and Jo Hong-gwang couple. We believe that Dail Community China today could be possible thanks to countless people who have prayed for us. We give our thanks to all those people. Wherever we live and wherever we go, we will carry the spirit of Dail and continue the life of sharing. We thank all of you, and love you."

"Hello! I am Han Hae-yeon. It is already a year and half since I moved from Cambodia to China. Remembering all the gratification and graces I enjoyed in Cambodia, I'm working hard and growing in Shanghai. And I am so grateful for the support and prayers from so many people. I've heard that Dail Children's House in Hunchun has finished. I'm quite sad to hear of the disappearance of my old home where I grew with love and blessings, grooming my dreams and hopes. As Dail Community is with us forever, I think it is time for all the family members now separated from each other to return the love that we have received so far with more support and prayers. We will work harder and provide more support so that all of us can cheer up. Way to go!"

A Message from Dail Community China

"We are desperately waiting for people who will provide help so that our children may finish their education. Hunchun City regulation stipulates that education is provided to children who are 17 or younger, and we must take care of those youths and college students who are 18 or older. Particularly, Jihyang, who entered college in September, has yet to find a sponsor. To carry on with the miracle of saving lives with life through love, please send your warm-hearted donations to Hunchun!"

Dail Community

Launches Babfor in Cebu, the Philippines

Opening Ceremony for Dail Church and Community Center in Kamansi, the Philippines

Cebu in the Philippines is a world-famous tourist destination. But do you know that there is a poor village in the otherwise luxurious and beautiful Cebu?

In March, Dail Community staged the campaign for 'the miracle of one peso' for Kamansi, the poor water village in Cebu, the Philippines.

The village is built on dark, putrid water, and the people live on that water. What really broke our hearts was the fact that most of the residents were drug addicts while children were going around begging.

So, we began to collect 'one peso (the Filipino coin)' to help them out. Six months later, we were able to launch a Babfor in Kamansi with the help and love of a lot of people!

On Sep. 24, 2017, a number of people gathered to celebrate the opening of Dail Community's Kamansi Community Center in the Philippines. Congratulatory remarks were delivered by Pastor Choi Il-do, the founder of Dail Community in the Philippines, its past directors and sponsors, and chairman of the Filipino native tribespeople's assembly, and Pastor Edgar who was operating a local ministry.

The opening was all the more significant as Kamansi Center was built with funding of 'Last Pennies for the Pride', provided by our seniors who come to Cheongnyangni Babfor to be served. All this was possible only because despite their own difficulties, people directed their love and warm-hearted attention to their neighbors. This truly gives us a good reason to be thankful!

① Children heartily enjoying the food. ② Banners heralding the new start of Kamansi Dail Community.
 ③ Ceremony for delivering Babfor's 'Last Pennies for the Pride'. ④ Ildo Choi, the chief director, serving food.

Following the opening ceremony, Babfor proceeded at the ground-floor cafeteria. It was a magnificent time for everyone, as the center was filled with the laughter and joyful energy from the children.

Kamansi Dail Community Center in the Philippines is now off to a new start!

While hoping that beginning with the change in Kamansi, the whole of the Philippines will be happier through joy and sharing, Dail Community will not rest its sharing hands until the country is free from starving people.

We thank everyone for giving their love and support to open Kamansi Community Center. We look forward to your continued care and encouragement for Kamansi in the Philippines and Dail Community!

Interview with NC Dinos' Warm-Hearted Babfor Sharing

With NC Dinos members at the end of Babfor volunteering

On Sep. 14, Babfor Sharing Campaign Headquarters was visited by the members of NC Dinos now affiliated with the Futures League of South Korean professional baseball, who joined the warm-hearted sharing. Even though autumn had officially started, it was quite warm during the day. Still, the athletes fulfilled their job excellently while sweating out, which drew praise from elderly people who visited Babfor.

After their Babfor volunteering with hearty willing zeal, we'd like to share our interview with the members of NC Dinos right here.

Q1. Please tell us a bit about NC Dinos.

NC Dinos is a professional baseball team based in South Korea. We have two regional bases. Team 1 is in Masan, Gyeongsangnam-do, and our Futures Team is in Goyang, Gyeonggi-do. And NC Dinos members who have joined the Babfor volunteer work came from Goyang.

Q2. You must be tied up with training and competition. What led you to volunteer for Babfor?

Futures League has its season winding up around this time in fall. When the regular season is over, it has an educational camp going on in September and October. On top of practice matches and training, it has its own program ready for other various experiences such as volunteer work and cultural life. Futures League athletes bask in the outpouring love from fans. Having searched for ways to return the love, we decided to take advantage of educational camp to volunteer for Babfor. It was something perfect for all the members of our team to do together as it sounded considerably significant. As we had no excellent cook among us, however, we feared that we weren't going to be of help, haha.

NC Dinos players carrying food trays.

Q3. Did you usually take an interest in sharing or volunteering? Have you ever participated in some other volunteer work before?

It may sound like an excuse, but with not much time available and for other various reasons as well, my interest in volunteering has been kept locked up only in my heart. Volunteering here for Babfor, I find it truly inspiring.

Q4. Which do you find more difficult, baseball or Babfor volunteering?

Tough as it is, baseball is fine as it's what I have done day after day. Babfor volunteering is something I've never done before, so my team members seem to find it more demanding, haha.

Q5. Share with us what you think after your Babfor volunteering.

My grandfather and grandmother passed away. So, for a while, seeing elderly men and women, I've felt this yearning. Today, seeing seniors here reminded me of my grandfather and grandmother. If I have more opportunities like this, I'll have to bring myself to more actively join in and serve.

Actually, volunteering sounded like a big deal. So, I don't have much experience in volunteering. Today, however, I felt it was really meaningful volunteering for Babfor. We enjoyed ourselves with the new experience. And when we saw seniors have their meals here, it seems that the time we enjoyed here has been pretty helpful for them.

Q6. One word on Babfor and Dail Community?

First of all, we're thankful for doing this good work. If we have another opportunity, we would like to join again! It would be wonderful if time matches and we can make it.

We'd appreciate it if you keep this good work!

Q7. One last word for your fans.

While people think that volunteer work is necessary, it isn't easy to put this idea into action. We hope our fans could experience Babfor volunteering if they have a chance. Food is everywhere these days, but through Babfor volunteering, we can appreciate the importance and value of every meal!

We express our heart-felt thanks to NC Dinos for engaging in Babfor volunteering heartily and with passion. We hope that they continue to engage in more sharing and loving! dail

NEPAL

Kushal Director of Nepal Dail Community

11th-Grade Children

Nepal's education policy is changing. Previously, most of its children got their education up to the 10th grade and then graduated to get their jobs. The public schools created by the Nepalese government offer a curriculum up to the 10th grade. Now, students must finish up to 12th grade to be acknowledged as a high school graduate, so that they can go to college or get better jobs.

Of the children supported by one-to-one sponsorship of Nepal Dail Community, a total of eleven students will make it to the 11th grade. Many students are forced to stop or give up their education because of the burden of tuition costs.

Nepal Dail hope school

Below are the names of our 11th graders.

Sopona Lama	Komola Nepali
Asha Tamang	Rosani Sresta
Sunita Godal	Kobita Bardewa
Dibya Gurung	Jit Bahadr Mogol
Rosani Gurung	Hopila Tami
Sorita Tamang

These children have grown up fed and cared by Dail Community in Nepal since their childhood. Now, they volunteer at Babfor serving younger ones. We are looking for angels who will help these eleven students finish up their twelfth grade and move on to become professionals. We ask for your prayers for these youths who will work for Nepal's future!

We Got Talent at Hope School

'Dashain' is the biggest festival in Nepal and the Nepalese people have at least ten days off celebrating the festival. Running up to Dashain, the children at our Hope School had a good time, too. Different classes had We Got Talent sessions for presenting dance, songs, or some other talents. It was so wonderful to watch all the loving children mix and share at least one of their talents, including dancing, singing, and impersonating. Teachers encouraged their participation with pep talk. Seeing those children brighter now and more confidently expressing their hearts and thoughts than before, you feel that their performance foreshadows the bright future of Nepal. Most of the children at Hope School are on a child sponsorship program. It is thanks to the attention and love from our sponsors that these children are growing as bright and healthy. We give our whole-hearted thanks to everyone who is supporting Nepal. dail

Children carrying wood

PHILIPPINES

Joo Hyong Ryu, Director of Philippines Dail Community

"Hinay hinay. Pero ayaw pagpahulay!"

"Slowly. But unceasingly!"

Materials are delivered to the construction site in Kamansi every other day. It's because orders are placed to selected cheaper suppliers when needed in order to reduce the construction costs. This makes delivery of materials a very demanding task.

Since the expansion work is in progress at the innermost of the village, just carrying timber requires you a long walk from the village square to the construction site, along the tortuous narrow bamboo bridge.

A small misstep could damage the tumble-down shacks around, so carrying a lot at a time is simply out of the question.

Workers who engage in the construction must get out and receive the materials upon arrival. Once they go out, usually it takes a while for them to return with the materials, maybe because they regard it as a breather. I don't know whether they know that they keep me on the edge of my seat, but they seem to enjoy their breaks from their work.

Community center nearing completion

'Quick, quick' has been spoken just too many times and it appears to have lost its efficacy.

From this week, we are going fast like a commando with good teamwork. I also carried one wood plank on my shoulder, and was about to shout out, 'Quick, quick!' Then, I took a deep breath and with a pause, I said instead, "Hinay hinay. Pero ayaw pagpahulay! (Slowly, slowly but ceaselessly!"

At my 'hinay hinay', the workers looked heartened, and they all carried timber, shouting, 'hinay hinay'. When several workers slowly but unceasingly and steadily plied back and forth in file, one hundred pieces of timber were moved in a heartbeat.

Today, village kids were out to help out. And the leader was the naughty Gabriel.

He used to hang around each time construction materials arrived, and we kept him from joining, thinking it would be too dangerous for him. But today, I couldn't stop these kids. After all, the kids moved five of the heavy wood planks.

Slowly, slowly, but unceasingly, and tirelessly, I wish I could work with these people.... It's just another day passionately praying that I could walk this path without hurrying, keeping pace and keeping our hearts together. dail

Hee Jun Lee, Director of China Dail Community

New Start and New Dream for Dail Community in China

Even after Dail Children's House was transferred to the Child Welfare Center affiliated with the Civil Affairs Bureau of Hunchun, the family of Dail in China continues to share their friendship. Although the name of the children's house has been changed and people live separately from each other, we are still a family. For children's birthdays, we get together to celebrate. Children who graduated keep sending support and sponsorship.

Many people who love Dail Community in China continuously give their support and sponsorship. The current one-on-one child sponsorship program will continue. In financially and emotionally supporting children who need to adapt to their new environment, Dail Community in China is putting in various efforts, while Hunchun Child Welfare Center welcomes the continuous cooperation from Dail Community in China.

Now, we're preparing for a new start. Our children, who have grown to be beautiful and healthy with the love from those who have supported and sponsored Dail Community in China for the past twenty years, are freshly starting the Dail Community in China. The new Dail China will do its best to put into action serving and sharing in many places by pushing its area of operation, not only for supporting those children at the children's house in Hunchun but also for supporting the employment and settlement of those youths who just graduated from vocational schools and for supporting those in college, and furthermore, for the financial support for the students from disadvantaged families in Hunchun and for the projects that we have brooded over for last twenty years, eyeing the children in North Korea across the Duman (Tumen) River. So far, our work has been focused on child care. From now on, we will follow our newly given path beyond Hunchun, China across the Duman River all the way to Vladivostok, Russia.

With our sights on these projects, we will organize Hunchun Dail Loving Heart Association mainly with the graduates of Dail Children's House in a bid to expand our work. Now, the Dail China family will take the lead in working to establish Dail Community in China.

In 1997, Dail Community took its first step in Hunchun, eyeing North Korea where people are starving. Unexpectedly, however, the orphanage mission was granted, and we have spent the last twenty years undertaking the mission. It is through God's providence that our children, now grown up, can legally handle the task with supports. We are simply grateful.

Dail Community in China has twenty years behind it. Now on its feet at age 20, Dail China looks to your warm-hearted support and sponsorship. For its rebirth as a community that serves not only China but also needy neighbors all over the world, Dail China will work harder. Please walk with us as you have so far.

We hope the sincerity and love from the family of Dail China will make it to you.

Thank you! We love you! dail

CAMBODIA

Sae In Ko, Manager of Cambodia Dail Community

Warm bread baked at BBangfor

Mobile Babfor and BBangfor with Phnom Penh Branch

The Phnom Penh Branch of Dail Community in Cambodia is operating Bapfor and BBangfor for poor residents throughout the city. It also conducts Mobile Bapfor, which provides hot meals for poor people near a landfill site or on the streets. Starting in 2017, when it was designated by the Korean Red Cross as a project entitled to blood donor voucher, it distributes 400 bread loaves a day, at least five times a week, to disadvantaged neighbors.

Of all the areas where Mobile Babfor is given, the landfill site has the largest number of the poor.

Distributing cooked rice and bread to over 500 people in the location required a food truck. After we spent some time trying to figure out a solution, we decided to run a project fundraiser together with the “Love Full in Both Hands” team made of local Korean mothers and children who frequently joined volunteering at the center. Thus, the fundraiser launched on “Value Together with Kakao” on June 30 with a view to buying a food truck. More people chipped in than we first thought and with great response, the fundraiser was completed in about a month, earlier than scheduled. Thus, we finally got a truck made and purchased.

Previously, for each Mobile Babfor session, people traveled far with bread boxes and rice jars on their laps, as they had to carry everything in one single mini car already filled with passengers. And without a parasol under the strong sunlight that blasts Cambodia throughout the year, people usually created a makeshift table with a plank placed on crocks or a plastic cover laid on the ground to distribute loaves of bread from there. Now, seeing the doors on its three sides opened to create a shadow and the tables emerging from the bottom of the vehicle, everyone was exultant with wild claps.

On the day of the first Mobile Babfor session after we got the food truck, we wanted to have some bountiful sharing like a neighborhood party. So, we shared a tableful of food prepared by Phnom Penh Jeil Church, including snacks, bread freshly baked at Babfor, and even the fabulous fried rice made at Babfor. All the neighbors receiving the gifts were happy over the bountiful sharing, and the “Love Full in Both Hands” team and the staff, who worked hard in the hot weather, shared cooked rice and bread with bright looks of delight on their faces, joyful even as they sweated profusely. dail

Tet Trung Thu, the Vietnamese Autumn Harvest Festival, When Sharing Ripens

As is suggested by the Korean expression, “Wish it could be Chuseok every day”, autumn as a harvest season seems to carry a power that brings affluence into our hearts.

In Vietnam, they call mid-autumn harvest festival Tet Trung Thu. As people in Vietnam engage in harvesting all year round, Tet trung Thu is in fact different from the Chuseok of Korea and is similar to the Korean holiday, ‘Children’s Day’. On this day, Vietnamese people distribute delicious food and heart-laden gifts to children. Or, they express their gratitude to their acquaintances by sharing ‘Moon Cake’.

Bountiful Moon Cake Sharing at Chamjoeun Gwangsung Church and Lotteria

For the Autumn Harvest Festival that arrived through ensuing days with hot weather, Chamjoeun Gwangsung Church prepared moon cakes that would serve as a feast for the eyes and mouth. With the four-hundred moon cakes prepared, we were able to share enough food with residents from Tonhung Village to Binhunghua Village, thus delivering affluence to the hearts of those who received it. We are truly thankful to the pastor and the believers of Chamjoeun Gwangsung Church, who not only made the moon cakes but prepare good, nutritious meals each month.

Moon cakes were also prepared by Lotteria, which contributes to food funds and participates in volunteer work every third Friday of the month.

The moon cakes made by Lotteria were presented to the housewives of Tonhung Red Cross and the officials of Tonung People's Committee and Ho Chi Minh Red Cross, who regularly participate in Babfor volunteer work.

Happier together. We look forward to tomorrow, warmer together.

Moon cake means 'bread shaped like a full moon'. The autumn full-moon festival in Vietnam was full of giving, when everyone shared the round moon cakes which were uplifting just to see.

I am so pleased and thankful that I can deliver the news of the 'love relay' that reached Vietnam from Korea and extends to the ends of the earth. dail

UGANDA

Chang Jae Byun, Director of Uganda Dail Community

“Hello from Uganda!”

Welcome you! Thank you! Love you! Bless you!

This is the beautiful Uganda in Africa!

Having set foot in Tanzania in Africa on Apr. 24, 2012 and served forty months until Jun. 29, 2015, my family spent twenty-five months in Korea before we arrived at Dail Community in Uganda, our new mission, on Aug. 1, 2017.

When it comes to Uganda, what occurs to you first?

Idi Amin? Entebbe International Airport? The Terror?

Is it because it is a country with a painful history including civil wars? Many of the people we met before we departed for Uganda were seen to bring up their memory of pain.

Although it carries the painful history caused by human greed, Uganda is in fact dubbed ‘the Pearl of Africa’. Uganda abounds in natural environment that cuts a figure because it remains undeveloped, such as the ample water resource in the Victoria Lake, the beautiful Mt. Rwenzori that inspires viewers and visitors with the mystery of nature, and the great plains where wild life roams. However, nothing can be more beautiful than people. Confessing that people are more beautiful than flowers, we after all live for our happiness, thinking of people.

While we aren’t so qualified, we hope that we will learn more about Uganda and Africa and thereby share more news like this with a lot of people through continued exchange. We’d appreciate it if you offer words of encouragement and support whenever you remember us.

“Beautiful Steps of Director Kim Hye-gyeong and Deputy Director Byeon Yong-soo!”

Having served for a total of ten years in service at overseas branches, including four years in Africa (Uganda and Tanzania) and more in the Philippines and Cambodia, Missionaries Byeon Yong-soo and Kim Hye-gyeong have returned to Korea.

In taking over their work, I could see that it was richly imbued with the efforts of two people who did their best for over three years to serve and take care of Uganda’s poor and alienated neighbors, particularly its children.

The hearty gifts and letters that the poor teachers, parents, and children of Kitico and Kigo Elementary School prepared and the difficult moment of separation amidst the tears shed by the Korean missionaries and local Korean residents who shared time and memories made me see how the two people took each of their steps through their journey.

It was touching to hear their words: “As we look back to our past ten years here, we never caught malaria or dengue, never fell ill with serious illness, not even a dent in the car. We’re just so grateful that we have fulfilled our mission and we are still alive and completely fine.”

How thankful we should be that they have done their best to keep everything ready with total honesty and completed the change-over without a single error!

I understand that they are discovering more joy like never before at Dail Community DTS Training Center in Mukan-ri, which is their new workplace. You did a wonderful job. Webarenyo (My heart-felt thanks to you!) dail

TANZANIA

Jong Won Park, Director of Tanzania Dail Community

Dear Sponsor, I had a school picnic!
 Thank you for your support over the past year! ^^

“Simba!”

The students of Term 4 of Hope Class had an excursion to the zoo. Most of the children in Kundhuchi are practically tied down to the quarry there. Before they came to study at Hope Class, most of the kids worked with the parents to cut stone at the quarry, looked after their younger siblings, or peddled vegetables in their baskets around the neighborhood. So, when it took just 20 minutes by car from the Center to Bahari Zoo, it was their first day at the zoo for all the kids.

They saw the lion (simba), hyena, monkey, turtle, giraffe, flamingo, eagle, and snake. When the animal collection didn't represent a great variety at the zoo, the children's curiosity remained all the same. They fed tree leaves to the giraffe or even climbed the big turtle's back. They found it so funny that were monkeys enjoyed eating banana peels so much.

The seesaw, the swing, and the slide that they enjoyed during breaks were so exciting.

The lunch they enjoyed together with their friends and teacher was like a feast despite its simple content.

And for the game after their lunch which they enjoyed in four groups, it didn't quite matter whether they won or lost. As for jump rope, they barely went beyond two, but it was fun regardless. For the tug-of-war, they clenched their teeth and pulled with all their might. In the last event of the relay race, some kids tumbled or missed their baton. Still, the children are beautiful as they do their best.

Hope Class Term 4 students will have their spring break in October, and after their last graduation exam in early December, they will graduate in mid-December. And in November and December, they will visit nearby Umrungani and Umtakuza Elementary School to take an oral exam for transfer, and then start their school life in January.

It is by God's grace and many sponsors who love Dail Tanzania that our children enjoyed the picnic and have studied hard over the past year.

Conveying the hearts of our children and staff, I send greetings to all our sponsors who have sent prayers and supports over the past year. Thank you, and Merry Christmas! DAIL

“Only Jesus, Only Love” from JUST ORANGE, an angel donor

Let us introduce Elder Yu Jae-joon and Deaconess Kim Eun-joo of JUST ORANGE, an angel donor, who are quietly plodding through their life of sharing and service in the name of Christ. The two persons recall that their big turning point in life and the beginning of their love of Dail came when they attended Pastor Choi Il-do’s assembly in Nashville, Tennessee, in 2003 after they read 'The Cooking Poet Who Scoops Out Love' and admired the author.

Since the days of Dail Church at Dae Gwang High School, the duo have all along delivered great love and trust to the Dail Community. The elder and the deaconess say that they want to share with others who have suffered harm and sickness the grace that they received through stages 1 to 3 of Dail Community Spiritual Training. God knows how graceful they have been, serving as the head of Term 50 of ‘Searching the Beautiful World’, stage1 of Dail Community Spiritual Training, continuously provided finances and prayers and supplied meals for training groups, and anonymously and rewardlessly working in the kitchen of Dail Church.

Today, they are playing a huge part both spiritually and financially in the area in Atlanta where Dail Community US is located. They deliver their love in finances and prayers while remembering the number of children from poor Tanzanian families. Accepting it as their mission embracing about one hundred or so children down the road, they are just so beautiful, smiling as they say, “Only Jesus and only love!” dail

BABFOR Sharing Movement

Hong Choi, Director of Babfor Sharing Movement

“Wonderful sponsors of Babfor”

This summer with all its scorching hot days, the Babfor Restaurant filled each day with members of the dining table community who gathered from early morning to avoid the hot weather. Those whose sleep was troubled with the overnight heat could find rest at Babfor, which opened at day-break. A lot of people get their energy from one early lunch served from 11 a.m., and refilled with love, they live another day. Thus, every day is a miracle of love at Babfor. Of all the many people who contributed to the miracle of love, three of our sponsors stand out in terms of extraordinary gratification they delivered over the summer. And we introduce them right here. In fact, although we can't shine the spotlight on each and every one of our sponsors, the miracle of Babfor happens in the noble hands of all our touching sponsors.

Hanchon Seolleongtang, the First Touching Sponsor

Hanchon Seolleongtang supplied the healthy Korean Seolleongtang soup for elderly people who were having a hard time from the heat in the dog days! Moreover, as the restaurant readily provided the soup to the 3rd Bab Peacemaker, which was held in hopes of the day when people in South and North Korea dine together in peace, the participants shared vibrant hopes. All of the many elderly people who ate the soup felt refreshed and ready to deal with the hot summer weather and continue to boast their healthy life. Gladly willing to serve in gratitude if it's something that can help seniors' health, Hanchon Seolleongtang deserves our wish for their growth and prosperity. Thumbs up for Hanchon, our touching sponsor!

Nam Min-woo, the CEO of MTM, as the Second Touching Sponsor

The seniors of our dining table community, who could deal with the hot weather of the first two legs of the Dog Days, asked us to let them eat samgyetang ('chicken soup with ginseng and jujube') on the last leg of the canicule. Preoccupied with how we could get the food for the elderly people, we searched for a possible contributor but it wasn't panning out greatly. Then, Babfor received a phone call. It was from CEO Nam Min-woo of MTM, who had sent rice to us since he first heard Pastor Choi Il-do's lecture twelve years earlier. Over the phone, he committed to 500,000-won-worth of rice in sponsorship for this year. So pleased with the phone conversation with him, we let him know that elderly people wanted to have samgyetang to get through the home stretch of the hot summer weather. To our indescribable gratitude, he said that he would pay for their samgyetang, no matter how much it would cost him! And what a touching and bountiful samgyetang dinner we shared to wrap up the summer hotness. Thumbs up again for CEO Nam Min-woo of MTM as our gratifying sponsor!

CEO Yoon Byeong-mook

Babfor has a variety of companies, organizations, schools, churches, families, and individuals as volunteers who serve in person, with talents, or with finances. It is thanks to these people who come and serve that Babfor has realized its 10 million servings in its 29th year. JT Chinae Savings Bank comes twice a year to serve, and in the second half of the year, its CEO came volunteering. Currently, Babfor tries to go beyond food sharing and is preparing 'Tteokfor', which is designed to help a new start for those who visit to eat. Tteokfor is going to help seniors with proceeds from the sale of nurungji ('crust of overcooked rice'), but we've had difficulty to get a high-priced nurungji machine. Then, CEO Yoon Byeong-mook readily shelled out funds, which got us a nurungji maker! CEO Yoon Byeong-mook of JT Chinae Savings Bank, who practices sharing in love, is an angel in our time who delivers hope in dark places. Thumbs up for CEO Yoon Byeong-mook of JT Chinae Savings Bank as our touching sponsor!

DAIL ANGEL'S HOSPITAL DAIL LITTLE HEAVEN

Jung Soon Lim, Director of Dail Little Heaven

Ring exchange ceremony

A Very Special Day of My Life

An owner of a construction company, Lee Seon-gu (alias) had a happy life with a loving wife and twin sons. However, the Asian financial crisis didn't spare the family. When he lost his company and home, Lee Seon-gu had to start working as a day worker to support his family. Even though he worked hard day after day, his family's financial situation didn't improve, and at last the family arduously held together had to separate to get the status of basic living subsidies. Having separated from his family, Lee became homeless and experienced great difficulty earning his daily living. Worse, feeling awfully weak, he visited a hospital where he was diagnosed with prostate cancer to his great despair. Meanwhile, his wife, who checked into a long-term care hospital, was slowly losing her eye vision with complications from her diabetes.

Currently, Lee Seon-gu lives at Dail Little Heaven. Although he gets anti-cancer treatment once a month, he tries to think positively and make some smile. Not too many homeless people want to share their life story during a counseling session.

Wedding car for the trip

Lee Seon-gu showed his strong determination to let people know his story and thereby get back on his feet with help.

Dail Community, a social welfare foundation, has conducted a campaign for supporting families in crisis, eyeing those low-income families that need emergency help. And starting on December 26, Dail Little Heaven publicized the story of Mr. Lee, and has collected a fund of about 3.3 million won as a lot of people showed love and attention.

① Lee Son-gu and his wife making the pledge
 ② An outing to Ganghwado Island following the pledge ceremony

“One last dream for me while I’m alive is to live together with my wife and children who had a hard time because of me.” In honoring Mr. Lee’s wish, Dail Little Heaven has spent a month preparing a special program with the money sent by many people.

And on Sep. 19, there was a special pledge ceremony for Lee Seon-gu and his wife, which was presided over by Pastor Choi Il-do, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Dail Community. After reading their letters of love for one another, the couple exchanged their rings. Quite like any pledge ceremony, it was joined by a lot of guests who celebrated the occasion. Afterwards, the couple was going to enjoy a travel to Ganghwado Island from Sep. 20 through 22 for a long-awaited time together. And on the 20th, which started the 2-nights and 3-days trip, all residents of Dail Little Heaven joined an outing. They all visited the arboretum on Seokmodo right by Ganghwado, where they enjoyed clean air, delicious lunch, and once again congratulated the couple on their pledge ceremony.

As the program was the first of its kind prepared by Dail Community, all the staff worked as one to come up with a meaningful event. Lee Seon-gu and Lee Geum-hwa (alias), his wife, shed tears and smiled as the ceremony went on, while all the members of Dail Little Heaven shared their tears and smiles as they had known Mr. Lee and could see how the two were feeling. After the event came to an end, the couple expressed their heart-felt thanks to Dail Community and all the sponsors behind the program. It was a most special pledge ceremony where the truly happy couple warmed all the hearts watching.

Oryun Church Holy Choir

We love our volunteers from Oryun Community Church Holy Choir and wish them God's blessings. Perhaps because they sing in one beautiful harmony out of their different voices, we were impressed by how brightly and beautifully they all worked as volunteers. Thumbs up for the Babfor volunteers from Oryun Community Church Holy Choir, who added to the daily food budget of 3 million Won an extra 300,000 Won from their voluntary donation!

4050 Seoul Metropolitan Mount Climbing Club

Babfor gives free meals six days a week from Monday through Saturday. Each day, 700 to 800 people come and eat with us. And as we need about 40 volunteers to prepare meals for that number of people, come to find ourselves at a loss over shortage of helping hands three or four times a month. And it is volunteers from 4050 Seoul Metropolitan Mount Climbing Club that come to us and fill those vacancies. Thumbs up for 4050 Seoul Metropolitan Mount Climbing Club which safeguards the dining table for seniors as Babfor's guardian angel!

English Club at Lifelong Education Center Affiliated with Department of Social Welfare of Konkuk University

The volunteers from Konkuk University Lifelong Education Center English Club formed their new volunteer team this year. But their love and passion for Babfor volunteering is simply incomparable. Particularly, as the Club's advisor, Prof. Byeong Doo-yeong joins the volunteers each time, and he is so much happier as a volunteer than as a college professor that the volunteers think of him as a Babfor volunteer. Kudos for the KU English Club whose members are all passionate volunteers!

LITTLE HEAVEN

Lee Chung-hyup, a Student of Chungryang High School

As a student of Chungryang High School, Lee Chung-hyup is a first-timer volunteer at Dail Small Kingdom of Heaven. Never known to be as such in his early days, Chung-hyup does not complain about whatever work is assigned to him, and focuses on his work with willingness to do his best. And whatever work is given, he knows how to finish it. It's wonderful to see him work as a volunteer, respecting and loving seniors with hopes that his help for the underprivileged can create a society where everyone has a good life! Bravo, Chung-hyup! We hope that you continue to volunteer for Dail Small Kingdom of Heaven.

Ssangyong Cement

Employees of Ssangyong Cement came to Dail Small Kingdom of Heaven. Finding the time out of their busy schedules to volunteer with us, the employees of Ssangyong Cement always bring with them hearty gifts. This time, they brought delicious bananas and chocolate pies for our elderly residents. As they cleaned the place and washed the physically challenged seniors, we felt like we were seeing angels. They said they would come once again before the year crawls off. Way to go for Ssangyong Cement! Thank you!

Hwigeong Technical High School Freshmen

Students of Hwigeong Technical High School volunteered at Dail Small Kingdom of Heaven. Hwigeong Technical HS is a frequent volunteer with us. Young first-time volunteers as they were their involvement in washing the physically challenged seniors and helping them get back into their clothes made us see a brighter future for the country. Our staff once again felt moved to hear them say that they had learned much and that they wanted to return as volunteers. You're welcome as volunteers any time! The door of Dail Small Kingdom of Heaven remains open.

ANGEL'S HOSPITAL

Medical Volunteers in Cambodia

Every summer, Dail Angel Hospital gets on an airplane together with medical volunteers to serve poor and ailing people. This year as well as last, twelve medical volunteers from Dail Angel Hospital visited Dail Community Cambodia. For seven days while sleeping five nights, they spent time in a meaningful way, performing health checks on children at an orphanage and the employees of the department of social affairs in a Cambodian province, and treating the kids at Saemmul Kindergarten in Phnom Krom and the residents in Omanuok. Funds raised through a bazaar held by Theater 99℃ were also delivered. We pray that the therapeutic rays which are warmer than strong sunlight thrown on their wounds heal them completely. Dear angels, we thank you for your talent donation and sponsorship.

NEPAL

Ms. Cha Eun-gyeong

Ms. Cha Eun-gyeong of Young Nak Presbyterian Church visited Dail Nepal for 2 weeks of volunteer work. She said she was happy to spend meaningful time serving Babfor and Hope School. The 2-week leave was a reward for her continuous ten-year employment with her company. We are so grateful that she has spent it volunteering. God bless her!

VIETNAM

Babfor 29 Team

We have people who have visited Babfor with unchanging commitment since September 2015. It's Babfor 29 Team. We are no longer afraid of our daily dish washing because we have Babfor 29 Team that always fills the need. It is because of the rubber latex gloves delivered as gifts from the team. Because we demand so many things, sometimes we feel so sorry about that. And of course, we thank Babfor 29 Team for reading our thoughts. Babfor 29 Team, you're the best!

CAMBODIA

Gyeongnam Regional Self-Help Center Association - Siem Reap

People of Gyeongnam Regional Self-Help Center Association who are striving to help the financial independence and improve the livelihood of low-income people in Gyeongsangnam-do, visited Dail Community in Cambodia. As they work for residents in the southern Gyeongsang province, they engaged in the Babfor activities more earnestly and sweating more profusely than anyone could have done. Hugging each and every child so warmly and holding their hands, they put in a gratifying span of time in which their beautiful work was going to leave seeds of love in the young hearts.

Malaysian Volunteer Group - Phnom Penh

Composed of local businesspeople and church believers, a Malaysian volunteer group visited for their service. It was their first visit and volunteer work, and they were surprised to see the Babfor work done in Cambodia. They were even more surprised to hear about the Babfor sharing that goes on around the world. Committing 1 ton of rice, they promised more visits and participation in volunteering.

Brother Park Eun-soo – Siem Reap

Brother Park Eun-soo, our long-time partner with heart-to-heart connection with Dail Community Cambodia, visited the facility with his mother and a friend, traveling from the US to deliver his warm-hearted support. Through the two-day dental treatment, a lot of children and adults from the region recovered their health. They visited families in a nearby village and worked hard in the Babfor service for children. Brother Park, who stays with us through heartfelt prayers, promised to return through our shared passionate prayer!

Love Full in Both Hands – Phnom Penh

After we bought a food truck with funds raised through a joint project with Love Full In Both Hands, we had our first Mobile Babfor session close to the landfill site. The team provided pails that we needed for the Babfor work and also

Okto Church – Phnom Penh

Okto Church in South Korea visited the Phnom Penh branch as Babfor and hygiene volunteers. Starting from early morning, they worked in preparing food ingredients, cooking meals, and shampooing hair and cleaning the body for the children who visited the center. They donated to the Babfor funds before they left.

Phnom Penh Jeil Church – Phnom Penh

Another volunteer group from Phnom Penh Jeil Church which engages in volunteer work every three months. The group brought with it 500 snack sets. As regular visitors, they needed no explanation and did a perfectly excellent job from start to finish in demonstrating their teamwork for Babfor, Pangfor, hygiene, and hair cut. Finally, they donated to fund the Babfor meals.

Hong Kong Methodist Church – Phnom Penh

A group of Hong Kong people and Americans visited from Hong Kong Methodist Church for volunteer work for two weeks. They work hard from morn till late evening in mural painting, paint work on the center walls, mud capping, Babfor sharing, haircut, and hygiene work. Furthermore, they donated to the funds to pay for related activities and purchased audio equipment for the center.

PHILIPPINES

Elder Lee Seong-il

Let us introduce Elder Lee Song-il, who has served for years as Sponsor Director of Dail Community in Cavite and has visited it every week for volunteer work. This time, we gave him the certificate of appoint that made him Honorary Director of Dail Kindergarten in the Philippines. When the duty involves difficult management that requires local staff to fill the vacancies caused by the creation of Dail Community in Cebu, he has served rewardlessly, for which we thank him sincerely. When it was a demanding favor that we ask of him, he readily accepted it, and saying that once he had his hands on it, he wouldn't take it lightly, he made sure that everything was spot on. Just as Dail makes you proud, you are the joy of Dail!
